What's the buzz?

Festival Performances

"I can't say enough good things about Scott and his level of professionalism, talent and charisma. He exhibits a natural ability to entertain and excite his listeners."

Harry Turner, Production & Artistic Director, Taste of the Blue Ridge Blues & Jazz Festival

"I highly endorse Scott to any event. His performance is true to the roots while expanding the genre. He really captures an audience's attention with his performance and presence."

Ray Kaminsky, Chair, Herndon Blues Festival

"Scott Perry exemplifies the best in musicianship, presence and professionalism.

The crowd always loves his fresh roots- fingerstyle guitar music." Kris Hodges, Production Manager, FloydFest

2003 CD Release, "Hero Worship"

"A marvelous tribute project. Your toes will be tapping."
Gvon T, Sing Out!

"Scott Perry clearly has done his homework woodshedding on pre-WWII blues. He makes tunes his own with the front-porch quality of his smooth and expressive picking." Ian Zack, Acoustic Guitar

"The intimate sound of Hero Worship spotlights Perry's vocals and dazzling fingerpicking and slide work produced on his National guitar."
Tom Hyslop, Blues Revue

"Perry is a versatile and talented guitarist. This disc has a pleasant, relaxed feel and proves to be an enjoyable album of honestly rendered classics."
Michael Hurtt, Living Blues
